

Genealogical Websites (compiled by Dave Nicholson & Jane Chapman)

David Nicholson's Thunder Bay Genealogical and Historical Research:

<http://my.tbaytel.net/pafwinfo/>

Thunder Bay obituaries, social notices, news and biographical indexes from local newspapers on the Thunder Bay Public Library website:

<http://www.tbpl.ca/article.collections-352.asp>

Norwegian digital archives (in English):

<http://www.arkivverket.no/eng/Digitalarkivet>

Bill Martin's Thunder Bay and Ontario Genealogy page:

<http://my.tbaytel.net/bmartin/sitemap.htm>

The Northern Ontario Gravemarker Gallery:

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~murrayp/index.htm>

The Latter Day Saints Family History Library in Salt Lake City, Utah (The largest genealogical collection in the world):

<https://familysearch.org/>

Annual Rootstech Technology and Family History Conference (Information videos of previous presentation posted on the site):

<https://rootstech.org/>

Genealogy Canada – A Canadian genealogy blog with useful and current topics updated daily:

<http://genealogycanada.blogspot.ca/>

A Canadian store for genealogical software, supplies and updated genealogy articles in the Global Gazette:

<http://globalgenealogy.com/news/index.htm>

Free, printable fan, bowtie and multi-generation pedigree charts in various styles for adults and children:

http://obituarishelp.org/free_printable_blank_family_tree.html

Ancestry Library Edition is available at every branch of the Thunder Bay Public Library (also available through wireless networks at every branch).

Old (but not all) Finnish passenger & passport records, old photos, immigration information:

<http://www.migrationinstitute.fi>

Old (but not all) Finnish vital statistics:

<http://hiski.genealogia.fi/historia/indexe.htm>

How to obtain a naturalization file:

<http://www.bac-lac.gc.ca/eng/discover/immigration/citizenship-naturalization-records>

Databases including ship manifests:

<http://www.bac-lac.gc.ca/eng/discover/immigration/Pages/introduction.aspx>

Canadian censuses including 1901 Port Arthur/Fort William as part of Algoma District and 1911 Port Arthur/Fort William as part of Thunder Bay District:

<http://www.automatedgenealogy.com>

Official Report of the 1936 Winter Olympic Games:

<http://library.la84.org/6oic/OfficialReports/1936/1936v1sum.pdf>