

Get Your Summer Read On!

Calling all kids: the TD Summer Reading Club is back, and reading has never been more fun! Canada's biggest bilingual summer reading program welcomes children of all interests and abilities, ages 0 to 12. The Club celebrates Canadian authors, illustrators, and stories, and inspires kids to explore reading their way, which is key to building a lifelong love of books.

Avoid the summer slide! Reading over the summer helps kids retain and build on the literacy skills they practiced during the school year. Registered participants receive a free notebook and stickers to track their reading, plus weekly prizes just for sharing what they have read. We will also have fun activities and initiatives all season long.

Summer Reading Club runs Monday, June 29 through Friday, August 14. There is something for everyone, including preschoolers and their families. Registration is open now! See page 4 for more details.

News and Updates

Ruth Hauelin-Douglas
Head Librarian

Welcome, summer! Although summer is our shortest season at the Library (we include two months of programming rather than the three or four of other seasons), it is a busy one. We have programs for all ages, including three Danny Go! Parties, Gold Panning, and craft programs such as Turmeric Painting for adults. For those of you who have enjoyed the Game On! with the Interactive Projector at Mary JL Black Library, you'll be happy to know that it's now available on the north side as well. Visit Waverley Library to try out our newest projector. For anytime programming, check out our Discovery Club, now available at all four branches! While you're visiting for a program, check out our board games, new books, and garden tools.

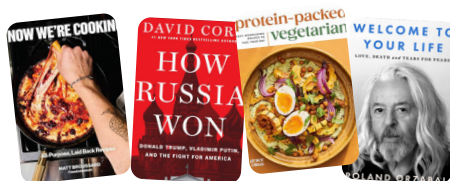

In Waverley Library news, thank you for your patience while we install main floor washrooms. We're through the worst of the noise and very much looking forward to becoming more accessible, with washrooms on the main floor for the first time in our 75-year history. Speaking of birthdays, we will be celebrating Waverley on Saturday, August 1 with a party in Connaught Square. Come for the pizza and cake, stay for the bouncy castles and games. We will also be sealing a special time capsule, so come see what treasures we'll be leaving for our future patrons to discover!

Everything we do at the Thunder Bay Public Library is made possible by you: our patrons, partners, donors, and volunteers. We truly appreciate the trust you place in us to provide collections, programming, and a community living room. I'm looking forward to seeing you in the branches this summer.

Library Love: In Your Words

Every year, you tell us what your Library means to you. Here it is, in your own words. Thank you for sharing your Library Love.

Each little bit helps to grow our Library system. What would the world do without our precious libraries? May we never find out.

- Sheila M.

Once you become a reader, you have a friend for life. Nothing better in life than losing yourself in a great book.

- Mary Lou

Library services are essential to our community.

- Cynthia B.

I love to read, quilt, garden, and enjoy yard work. The Library is always there to help me find information and new ideas.

- Edie E.

The Library is a great community hub and an important resource. It's been good to us, so we wanted to pass on some thanks.

- Matteo

Teens need safe and fun places to hang out, make friends, and create connections. Free third spaces matter!
